9. You are responsible to inform us immediately of any change which could impact your current categorisation. Nevertheless, if we become aware of such changes, we will take any appropriate action.

Basis of dealings

17. The Services are subject to applicable laws, regulations, rules, requirements, customs, practices and guidelines in force in any relevant jurisdiction for the time being where any transaction is carried out, including, without limitation, any applicable directive or regulation of the European Commission as well as the Law 87(I)/2017, Circulars and Directives issued by the CySEC from time to time and are in force, including the Companies Act, Chapter 113, Directive of the Code of Conduct, Regulation No. 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse and Directive 2014/57/EU of the European Parliament and the Council of 16 April 2014 on criminal sanctions for market abuse (together “Market Abuse Regulation”), the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law of 2007 as amended from time to time, and CySEC Directive regarding the prevention and suppression of money laundering and terrorist financing with amendments and supplements, as well as any applicable trade, economic or financial sanctions laws, regulations, embargoes or restrictive measures administered, enacted or enforced by a Sanctions Authority such as the United Nations, the European Union, the United States of America and any other relevant governmental or regulatory authority, institution or agency that administers Sanctions, and we may take all such steps as may be necessary or desirable to comply with such laws (hereinafter together referred as “Applicable Regulations”). Nothing in the Terms shall prevent us from taking all such action as may be required by Applicable Regulations or to comply with the regulations or requests of any relevant professional or regulatory body.
18. In accordance with our obligations under Applicable Regulations, we will endeavour to provide you with prompt, fair and expeditious execution for orders you place with us. In so doing, we will:
 - (a) accurately record and allocate orders we execute for you; and
 - (b) carry out comparable orders sequentially and promptly unless the characteristics of the order or prevailing market conditions make this impracticable, or your interests, as our client, require otherwise.

Appropriateness Test

19. We may require you to disclose further information to us, including but not limited to information relating to your knowledge of a particular financial instrument, market and dealing history, level of education and profession in order to discharge our obligation to assess whether an investment service or/and financial instrument is appropriate for you (the ‘Appropriateness Test’). In the event that we are unable to assess a Service or/and financial instrument as appropriate for you, including where this is due to a lack of information from you, we will warn you of this in writing. Should you wish to proceed with a Service or/and financial instrument in relation to which we have warned you/issued such a warning, you should request this in writing and it is the Company’s absolute discretion to consider your instruction on the basis of the surrounding circumstances and decide whether to proceed with the transactions or not.
20. We do not need to obtain information from you or make the assessment of appropriateness as described above if you are a retail client requesting, at your own initiative, investment services that only consist of execution or reception and transmission of clients orders in relation to certain financial instruments that are non-complex such as shares, excluding non-UCITS shares, and debt instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market or on an equivalent third country market or on a MTF, excluding those that embed a derivative or incorporate a structure which makes it difficult to understand the risk involved. You should note that in this situation, we are not required to assess the appropriateness of the financial instrument or service we are offering or providing you, and you will not benefit from the corresponding protection of the relevant conduct of business rules.

21. If we effect a transaction with or for you, this shall not be taken to mean that we recommend, or concur on the merits of, the transaction or that the transaction is appropriate for you. Since the Company will not provide to you the investment service of Portfolio Management or Investment Advice, you will not benefit from the protection of the MiFID II provisions on assessing suitability. You are required to make your own assessment of any transaction that you are considering and should not rely on any information or other communication from us as being investment advice.
22. We shall not be under any obligation to enter into any particular transaction or to accept or act in accordance with any instructions or provide any other services for you under these Terms not need we give any reasons for declining to do so. We will make all reasonable efforts to notify you promptly of such action, but shall not be responsible for any losses, costs, damages or expenses incurred by you as a result, except to the extent that such losses, costs, damages or expenses are the result of ACM's gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.
23. We may take or omit to take any action we think appropriate to ensure compliance with Applicable Regulations and we shall not be required to do anything which would in our opinion infringe any such Applicable Regulation. We are not required to give prior notice to you of any such action or inaction, and each such action or inaction will be binding upon you. Where, due to Applicable Regulations or otherwise, we have to execute an equivalent contract in order to effect a transaction we enter into with you, you will be bound by such actions that affect our rights and obligations under the equivalent contract.
24. Your orders will be executed in accordance with our Order Handling and Best Execution Policy (as amended from time to time), that is available on our website.

Instructions for FX Orders

25. The procedure for handling client's instructions and requests given through the trading terminals (each the "Trading Terminal") of one of the trading platforms referred to on our website (each the "Trading Platform") is governed by the relevant agreements between the Company and the Client. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these agreements, in the circumstances listed below, ACM may decline an instruction or a request:
 - (a) if the instruction or request precedes the first quote in the Trading Platform on the market opening;
 - (b) if current conditions are different from normal market conditions;
 - (c) if the Client has made an unreasonable number of requests in comparison with the number of transactions (more than five requests per one transaction);
 - (d) in any other reasonable case on ACM's sole discretion.

ACM_TOB_Retail

26. Where possible, the Client shall give instructions or requests through the Trading Terminal. The Client shall use ACM's telephone service only in times when it is impossible to use the Trading Terminal.

Risk Disclosures

27. In order for you to be able to take decisions on an informed basis, we provide to you an analysis of risks embedded in each financial instruments' category we offer you. The said analysis is included in the 'Financial Instruments Description and Associated Risks' document (the "Risk Disclosure Statement") that is provided to you during the on-boarding process, and is also available to you upon request, as well as in a separate risk disclosure document relating to Contracts for Differences (CFDs) published on our website at <https://alfacapital.com.cy/en/products/risk-warning/> (together "Our Risk Disclosure"). Our Risk Disclosure is intended as a general description of the risks associated with specific products or services. There may be other risks that it does not identify. You should therefore not rely on the Risk Disclosure as covering all possible risks and you should always satisfy yourself that the Services or transactions are suitable and appropriate for you in light of your specific circumstances.

Order Handling and Best Execution Policy

28. According to MiFID II framework, ACM is required to take all sufficient steps to provide the best possible result taking into account price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature or any other consideration relevant to order, when receiving, transmitting and executing orders.
29. ACM owes a duty to act honestly, fairly and professionally in the best interests of the clients when receiving and transmitting client orders to other entities for execution. It is noted that the duty of the Company when executing the orders received by its clients, is to apply best execution. We will closely work with the relevant brokers to ensure that they provide best execution in a manner that is compliant with the Law, in fulfilling an order or executing transactions for you.
30. In connection with the above ACM, has established an order handling and best execution policy which is available on the Company's website. This policy describes the factors and processes that ACM will adopt to meet the above obligations, and in particular how it will identify and utilise execution factors and criteria considering their relative importance when carrying out the above activities in relation to each class of Financial Instrument within the scope of MiFID II framework. This policy is not intended to cover all eventualities and all circumstances that may be relevant to a particular order placed with ACM. It is designed to serve as appropriate disclosure of the principles underpinning the order execution and transmission process that ACM will follow for orders when a client instructs it to execute or to pass to other entities for execution.
31. Where you provide us with specific instructions, either relating to an order or a particular aspect of an order, we will execute the order in accordance with those instructions. You should be aware that providing specific instructions to us in relation to the execution of a particular order may prevent us from following procedures under our 'Order Handling and Best Execution Policy' to achieve best execution.

ACM_TOB_Retail

32. On an annual basis, we will publish on our website by trading volume the top five execution venues / brokers used in the preceding year for each client category and asset class. In addition, a summary of execution quality obtained will be drawn and published on our website.
33. By using our Services, you are deemed to consent to our 'Order Handling and Best Execution Policy', a copy of which is available on our website.
34. If you instruct us with a limit order in respect of shares admitted to trading on a Regulated Market or traded on a Trading Venue which has not been immediately executed under prevailing market conditions, you consent to us not making public that order (or any part of it), unless otherwise instructed by you in writing.
35. Neither we nor any of our brokers will be responsible for any delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of orders or the execution thereof in either case due to any cause whatsoever beyond the reasonable control of such party.
36. Where ACM is acting as your broker, shall not credit the clients' cash accounts with funds received from third party accounts and shall not transfer any clients' funds to any third party accounts.

Aggregation of Orders

37. We shall not carry out a client order or a transaction for own account in aggregation with another client order unless the following conditions are met:
 - It is unlikely that the aggregation of orders and transactions will work overall to the disadvantage of any client whose order is to be aggregated;
 - It is disclosed to each client whose order is to be aggregated that the effect of aggregation may work to its disadvantage in relation to a particular order;
 - Our allocation policy provides for the fair allocation of aggregated orders and transactions, including how the volume and price of orders determines allocations and the treatment of partial executions.

Where we aggregate your order with one or more other client orders and the aggregated order is partially executed, we shall allocate the trades in accordance with our order allocation policy.

Where we aggregate transactions for own account with one or more client orders, we shall not allocate the related trades in a way that is detrimental to you or any other client.

In addition, where the aggregated order is partially executed, we shall allocate the related trades to you in priority to ACM. However, where ACM is able to demonstrate on reasonable grounds that without the combination it would not have been able to carry out the order on such advantageous terms, or at all, it may allocate the transaction for own account proportionally, in accordance with its order allocation policy.

Electronic communications

38. We may wish to communicate electronically with each other. We each recognise the electronic transmission of information cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error free and such information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost or destroyed, arrive late or incomplete or otherwise be adversely affected or unsafe to use. Accordingly, we shall regard your acceptance of these Terms of Business as including your authorisation for communicating with you and third parties on your behalf using electronic means. Each party agrees to use commercially reasonable procedures to check for the most commonly known viruses before sending information electronically and to take responsibility for ensuring that an electronic communication is not misaddressed. Accordingly, each party confirms that it accepts the risks of electronic communication and will be responsible for protecting its own interests in relation to electronic communications. Subject to the foregoing, no party shall have any liability to any other party on any basis, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise, in respect of any error, damage, loss or omission arising from or in connection with the electronic communication of information between the parties or any third party on the other party's behalf. As part of the consent form that is accompanied to the Terms, we enquire as to the possibility of obtaining your confirmation that you have regular access to the internet and your consent to provide you information in a durable medium other than on paper. This will enable us to post important information that is not specifically addressed to you on our website and communicate with you via email.

39. Subject to Applicable Regulations, any communication between us using electronic signatures shall be binding as if it were in writing. Orders or instructions given via email or other electronic means will constitute evidence of the orders or instructions given. Your communications with us will be recorded. A copy of such record will be available on request for a period of five years and, where requested by a Competent Authority, for a period up to seven years. All records will be stored in a durable medium, which allows them to be replayed or copied and the format shall not allow the original record to be altered or deleted. In addition, ACM will ensure the quality, accuracy and completeness of the records.

Telephone recording and monitoring communications

40. In order to assist ACM in monitoring compliance with Rules relating to conduct, to avoid misunderstandings and/or for other training or compliance purposes, ACM may monitor telephone conversations, email and other communications, and will create and keep a sound recording of calls. These recordings shall be retained for a period of five years and, where requested by a Competent Authority, for a period up to seven years; and may be made with or without the use of a spoken warning, tone, or similar notification to you. ACM's recordings shall be and remain sole property of ACM and will be accepted by you as conclusive evidence of the orders, instructions or conversations so recorded. A copy of such recordings will be available on request. The parties each agree that the other may deliver copies or transcripts of such recordings to any court, arbitrator, independent auditor, Competent Authority or law enforcement authority.
41. In the occasion of face-to-face communications with you, the date and time of meetings, the location of meetings, the identity of attendees, the initiator of the meetings, and any other relevant information about your order including the price, volume, type of order, and when it shall be transmitted or executed will, as a minimum, be recorded.

Use of ACM Internet Site

42. Subject to all applicable laws and regulations, information and research may be provided to you by ACM over the internet particularly via ACM's website.

ACM_TOB_Retail

43. You acknowledge that the internet is not a secure medium for communication of sensitive information. ACM will not be responsible for any delay in receipt by you of any information on the ACM internet site and any use of the ACM internet site by you shall be at your risk.
44. Specific sections of the Company's internet site are accessible if you, in case of physical persons, or your authorised persons, in case of legal entities, have been provided with a password. You shall keep, and shall procure that your authorised persons keep any password issued to you or your authorised persons by ACM secure. You shall not and shall procure that your authorised persons shall not disclose the password to any third party or any other person in your organisation and the password shall not be stored anywhere on a computer in plain text. As soon as you are aware that the password has become known to any unauthorised user, you shall inform ACM immediately.
45. You shall, when accessing the ACM internet site, comply with any laws or regulations relating to the internet which are or may in the future be issued by any applicable governmental body, including Competent Authorities.

Transaction Reporting

46. We will make transaction reports for all orders we execute on your behalf as part of a Service, concerning any financial instrument when:
 - The financial instrument is admitted to trading or traded on a trading venue (RM/MTF/OTF) in the EEA or for which a request for admission to trading has been made;
 - The underlying is a financial instrument traded on a trading venue; and
 - The underlying is an index or a basket composed of financial instruments traded on a trading venue.

The above three conditions apply whether or not the trade takes place on a Trading Venue.

47. Transactions executed by our broker on your behalf will be reported to the appropriate Competent Authority in the jurisdiction where the trade is executed. These transactions will also be reported by ACM to CySEC.
48. Transactions in derivative instruments may also be subject to the requirements of the European Markets and Infrastructure Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 as supplemented by each delegated regulation and implementing standard thereunder ("EMIR") and therefore, will be subject to ACM's EMIR reporting obligation.

Commodity derivatives

49. Where ACM is trading in commodity derivatives, ACM will need to comply with the Position Reporting Requirements and may from time to time be required:
 - Where such trades are conducted on a trading venue, to provide information relating to the positions in such financial instruments of you (and of your own clients, and clients thereof, until the end client is reached) and details about each member of the client chain to a trading

51. You:

- Agree to deliver to us such information as reasonably requested by us in time for us to comply with our Position Reporting Requirements, as applicable;
- Represent to us that such information is, at the time of delivery, true, accurate and complete in every material respect;
- Acknowledge and agree that we may rely on such information without investigation, unless and until you inform us otherwise;

- Undertake to provide us, on reasonable notice, with any material changes or updates to such information.

Trade reporting (“Post-trade transparency”)

52. For transactions executed outside a Trading Venue, in financial instruments that are traded on a Trading Venue, ACM has to publish certain information. This requirement applies to shares, depositary receipts, exchange traded-funds, certificates and other similar financial instruments as well as to bonds, structured finance products and derivatives. The information will be made public via an Approved Publication Arrangement (“APA”).

Trading obligation

53. Where we execute or transmit your order in shares admitted to trading on a Regulated Market or traded on a trading venue, we shall ensure that the execution takes place on a Regulated Market, MTF or with a Systematic Internaliser or a third-country trading venue assessed as equivalent in accordance to the Law.

54. We may not need to follow the above rules if such trades are:

- (a) non-systematic, ad-hoc, irregular and infrequent, or
- (b) are carried out between eligible and/or professional counterparties and it do not contribute to the price discovery process.

55. The Trading obligation shall also apply when ACM enters into derivatives transaction pertaining to a class of derivatives that has been declared subject to the trading obligation with financial counterparties as defined in Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 and non-financial counterparties that meet the conditions referred to in Article 10(1)(b) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, which are neither intragroup transactions nor transactions covered by the transitional provisions in Article 89 of that Regulation, as well as with third-country financial institutions or other third-country entities that would be subject to the clearing obligation if they were established in the Union. Where we enter into a transaction for your order for a class of derivatives that has been declared subject to the trading obligation in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 32 of Regulation (EU) 600/2017 and listed in the register referred to in Article 34 of Regulation (EU) 600/2017, execution should only take place on Regulated Markets, MTFs, OTFs or third-country equivalent trading venues.

Product Governance

56. We have a policy in place to ensure that both our respective responsibilities towards you and our product governance obligations are met. We are required to assess and define a target market for the investment products manufactured for, distributed or sold to you. In our role as product manufacturer and/or distributor (seller) we will assess investments periodically and we will share information on investments so that we can take any appropriate steps to improve outcomes for you as our client (or the end client). Unless you tell us otherwise we will assume that you are acting for your own account and not as a distributor for the purposes of these requirements.
57. When we make different products and services available to you, we will do so in accordance with the Rules relating to the manufacturing and distribution of investments products. We may not be able to make certain investments products available to you, depending on your classification as a client and depending on the service we are providing to you.

Client Reporting

58. Where we carry out an order for you in the course of a Service, we will promptly provide you with a summary of the execution of the order and (unless the confirmation would contain the same information as a confirmation that is to be promptly despatched to you by another person) send you a trade confirmation notice no later than the first business day following that execution or where we receive confirmation from a third party or broker, no later than the first business day following the receipt of the confirmation in each case. You also maintain the right to request at any time information about the status of your order.
59. All contracts, confirmations and statements issued by ACM shall bind you unless a detailed objection is received by ACM within one business day.
60. Confirmations will be distributed by electronic mail to the email address on record for you. It is your responsibility to inform us of any change to your email address or non-receipt of a confirmation. Confirmations shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on you, unless we receive from you objection in writing within one business day of making such confirmation available to you or we notify you of an error in the confirmation within the same period.
61. We will provide you on a monthly basis with an analytical statement about the transactions effected within the reported period not later than ten (10) business days after every reported period ends.

ACM_TOB_Retail

Stabilisation

62. We or our brokers instructed on your behalf may deal for you in financial instruments that may have been the subject of stabilisation. Stabilisation is a price supporting process that may take place in the context of new issues. The effect of stabilisation can be to make the market price of the new issue temporarily higher than it would be otherwise. The market price of investments of the same class already in issue, and of other investments whose price affects the price of the new issue may also be affected.

Capacity

63. Each party warrants to the other that:

- it has all necessary authorisations and approvals to enter into these Terms;
- by entering into these Terms and any transactions hereunder, it will not violate any applicable Regulations.

You warrant on a continuous basis that:

- all investments to which these Terms apply are and will be for as long as these Terms are in force, free from any charge, lien, pledge, encumbrance or other security interest and beneficially owned by you or the person or ultimate beneficiary on whose behalf you are accruing.

64. If you are acting on behalf of any other person when transacting investment business with us, to the extent permitted by the Rules, ACM will continue to treat you alone (rather than any other person) as its client for all purposes and in relation to all obligations, and you will be liable as such. This applies even if you act on behalf of a person whom you have identified to us.

Inducements

65. We are required to comply with the Rules on inducements. This means in summary that we are not permitted to accept or retain any fees, commissions, monetary or non-monetary benefits (each an inducement) paid or provided by a third party in relation to our service to you. We are similarly not allowed to pay or provide any inducement to any third party in relation to the provision of services to you. We can only accept or retain or pay or provide such inducements if they meet certain conditions. The inducement must not impair compliance with our duty to act honestly, fairly and professionally in accordance with the best interest of our clients and it must enhance the quality of the relevant service to you. We must also make disclosures about the inducement to you before we provide the relevant service to you.
66. The Company may provide payments to third parties in relation to the services we provide to you only in the case where such third parties made the initial referral of you as potential client. The payment to such third parties might be linked to your transactions' turnover provided that it does not impair our compliance with relevant legislation. The payments shall be reasonable and proportionate and of such a scale, that they are unlikely to influence the Company's behaviour in any way that is detrimental to your interests. For such referral, the Company might provide to the third parties information or documentation in relation to an investment or/and ancillary service or/and financial instrument. The aforementioned payments will not lead to an increase of the overall fees to be paid by clients.

ACM_TOB_Retail

Investment Research

67. We will provide information on investments or markets, such as research recommendations, market trends or investment analysis. This service is only intended for clients with sufficient financial sophistication to be able to appraise and evaluate the information. Where applicable, you must have a full understanding of the credit risks inherent in debt new issues, the price volatility of stocks when brought to the market and FX markets.
68. We will comply with the Rules in relation to the content of information on investments or markets which we may provide to you. We do not assert that the information is accurate, up to date or complete. We are not obliged to provide it to you before or at the same time as it is made available to our staff, other clients, or other people.
69. The information we provide through this service will not be assessed as suitable for you so you must not regard it as a personal recommendation or advice to you individually. You should consider seeking independent advice in relation to any investment mentioned in these materials prior to dealing in that investment.
70. Except to the extent that such information is freely available in the public domain, you must keep the information confidential and for your personal use and must not be used to provide advice to anyone else.
71. We are not obliged to consider investment research which we have given to you when dealing for you. We may suspend this service, or change its level of detail, layout/format and frequency from time to time without giving prior notice.
72. It is noted that ACM will disseminate investment research to you that is produced by third parties, provided that we have separately agreed to. Such separate agreement will set out the terms on which such research is provided, including payment terms, in accordance with the Applicable Regulations. You are responsible for ensuring you are entitled to accept and retain such research, and for notifying us in writing that you are no longer so entitled. We shall not be liable for any investment decision you make, based in whole or in part, on any investment research report, recommendation or other publication provided to you.

Positions in Leveraged Financial Instruments

73. When you hold positions in leveraged financial instruments, ACM shall inform you, where the initial value of each instrument depreciates by 10% and thereafter at multiples of 10%. Reporting under this regulatory requirement should be on an instrument-by-instrument basis, unless otherwise agreed with you, and shall take place no later than the end of the business day in which the threshold is exceeded or, in a case where the threshold is exceeded on a non-business day, the close of the next business day.

Safeguarding and Administration of Clients' Assets

74. The Company provides safekeeping and administration services to its clients by exercising due skill, care and diligence in the selection, appointment and periodic review of the third party and of the arrangements for the holding and safekeeping of your assets.

ACM_TOB_Retail

75. In case of financial instruments, the Company takes into account the expertise and market reputation of the third party as well as any legal requirements related to the holding of your financial instruments that could adversely affect your rights.
76. The Company only deposits financial instruments with a third party in a jurisdiction where the safekeeping of financial instruments for the account of another person is subject to specific regulation and supervision and that third party is subject to this specific regulation and supervision. The Company will not deposit the financial instruments held on your behalf with a third party in a third country that does not regulate the holding and safekeeping of financial instruments for the account of another person unless one of the following conditions is met:
- (a) The nature of the financial instruments or of the investment services connected with those instruments requires them to be deposited with a third party in that third country;
 - (b) You have requested ACM in writing to deposit them with a third party in that third country.

The above terms shall also apply when the third-party has delegated any of its functions concerning the holding and safekeeping of financial instruments to another third-party.

77. When we receive your funds, we shall promptly place those funds into one or more accounts opened with any of the following:
- A central bank;
 - A credit institution authorised in accordance with Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council;
 - A bank authorised in a third country.
78. Unless otherwise provided in writing, Alfa Capital Markets Ltd will not pay interest on any clients' funds.
79. We shall exercise all due skill, care and diligence in the selection, appointment and periodic review of the credit institution where your funds are placed with the arrangements for the holding of those funds and we shall consider the need for diversification of these funds as part of our due diligence. We shall also take into account the expertise and market reputation of such institutions or money market funds with a view to ensuring the protection of your rights, as well as any legal or regulatory requirements or market practises related to the holding of your funds that could adversely affect your rights.
80. For the safeguarding of your assets (financial instruments and funds, where applicable), we have open accounts with the following credit institutions:
- Clients' Cash Accounts:
- JSC "Alfa-Bank", Moscow, Russia

81. A non-EEA state's law may be applicable to the clients' accounts containing clients' financial instruments or funds.
82. Funds or securities (collectively referred to in this section as "assets") deposited by you may be subject to limited or reduced protections, if placed with a third party that is subject to the laws of a jurisdiction other than that of an EU Member State, or when subject to any Security Interest. Such limited or reduced protection may result in loss of your assets, particularly in the event of that third party insolvency or bankruptcy.
83. The extent to which you may recover your assets may be governed by applicable legislation or local rules of that third party's jurisdiction. In some jurisdictions, securities, which are identifiable as your own, will be pro-rated in the same manner as cash for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall.
84. When your assets are held with a third party, we are not liable for the acts or omissions of that third party or for any loss or damage that you may incur other than as a direct result of gross negligence or wilful misconduct on our part in the initial selection of the relevant third party. In the event of the insolvency of a third party, you may not recover all of your assets.
85. All securities purchased by us, any of our brokers instructed by us and requiring registration will be registered in our name for the benefit of you or your client, or as you may request, in the name of a custodian appointed by you or such client. Neither we nor any of our brokers instructed by us will be responsible for supervising any such custodian or have any responsibility in respect of any such custodian's acts or omissions. Note that all custodians are regulated and authorised entities. You confirm that you shall indemnify ACM in respect of any stamp duty, which may be payable now or in the future, in connection with any aspect to any transaction undertaken for you or your benefit and (including but not limited to, execution, delivery, performance, registration, movement or amendment) related to any agreement entered into between us or of any document connected to such agreement.
86. ACM will take all the necessary steps to ensure that the clients' financial instruments and funds are safeguarded. Specifically, the Company will:
 - maintain records and accounts enabling ACM at any time and without delay to distinguish assets held for one client from assets held for any other client and from its own assets;
 - maintain records and accounts in a way that ensures their accuracy, and in particular their correspondence to the financial instruments and funds held for its clients and that they may be used as an audit trail;
 - take the necessary steps to ensure that any client financial instruments deposited with a third party, in accordance with Article 3 of Delegated Directive 2017/593, are identifiable separately from the financial instruments belonging to the Company and from financial instruments belonging to that third party, by means of differently titled accounts on the books of the third party or other equivalent measures that achieve the same level of protection. However, in some jurisdictions it may not be possible to identify separately the securities which a third party holds for clients from those which it holds for itself and for ACM, and there is a risk that the Client's securities could be withdrawn or used to meet obligations of the third party, or lost altogether if the third party becomes insolvent;

- introduce adequate organisational arrangements to minimise the risk of the loss or diminution of client assets, or of rights in connection with those assets, as a result of misuse of the assets, fraud, poor administration, inadequate record-keeping or negligence;
- introduce arrangements to ensure that clients' assets are safeguarded in the case of insolvency;
- appoint a single officer of sufficient skill and authority with specific responsibility for the safeguarding of client financial instruments and funds.

Company's Obligations to Clients

87. When we hold your financial instruments or funds, we shall send you at least on a quarterly basis, a statement by e-mail of those financial instruments or funds unless such a statement has been provided in any other periodic statement. Upon your request, we shall provide such statement more frequently at a commercial cost.
88. The Company is obligated to inform its clients about its intention to maintain their assets with a custodian. Particularly the Company is responsible for informing clients in a durable medium of:
- The Company's responsibilities with regards to any acts or omission or insolvency of the custodian and the consequences for the client of the insolvency of the third party;
 - The Company's intention to maintain the client's assets in an omnibus account and shall provide a prominent warning of the resulting risks;
 - The jurisdiction of the custodian, if other than a member state, and the rights of the client;
 - The Company's obligations and responsibilities in case it will be using client's financial instruments;
 - Cases where the financial instruments held with a third party cannot be separately identifiable from the proprietary financial instruments of that third party or of the Company's and shall provide a prominent warning of the resulting risks;
 - About the existence and the terms of any security interest or lien which the Company has or may have over the client's assets, or any right of set-off it holds in relation to those instruments or funds. Where applicable, it shall also inform the client of the fact that the custodian may have a security interest or lien over, or right of set-off in relation to those instruments or funds.

Use of client financial instruments

89. Before entering into arrangements for securities financing transactions in respect of financial instruments held by it on behalf of a client, or otherwise use such financial instruments for its own account or the account of another client of the Company the following conditions should be met:

- the client has given his prior express consent to the use of the instruments on specified terms, as clearly evidenced in writing and affirmatively executed by signature or equivalent, and
 - the use of that client's financial instruments is restricted to the specified terms to which the client consents.
90. Before entering into securities financing transactions in relation to financial instruments held by it on behalf of a client, or before otherwise using such financial instruments for its own account or the account of another client shall in good time before the use of those instruments provide the client, in a durable medium, with clear, full and accurate information on the obligations and responsibilities of the Company with respect to the use of those financial instruments, including the terms for their restitution, and on the risks involved.
91. The Company will not enter into arrangements for securities financing transactions in respect of financial instruments which are held on behalf of a client in an omnibus account maintained by a third party, or otherwise use financial instruments held in such an account for its own account or for the account of another client unless at least one of the following conditions is met:
- Each client whose financial instruments are held together in an omnibus account must have given prior express consent;
 - The Company's systems and controls ensure that only financial instruments belonging to clients who have given prior express consent are so used.
92. We shall take appropriate measures to prevent the unauthorised use of your financial instruments for our own account or the account of any other client.
93. We will adopt specific arrangements to ensure that the borrower of client of financial instruments provides the appropriate collateral and that ACM monitors the continued appropriateness of such collateral and takes the necessary steps to maintain the balance with the value of client instruments.
94. ACM will not conclude title transfer collateral arrangements (TTCAs) with Retail Clients for the purpose of securing or covering present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations.

Re-use Risks and Consequences

95. Where we exercise a right of use in relation to any financial instruments that you have provided to us by way of collateral under a security collateral arrangement containing a right of use, we draw your attention to the following re-use risks and consequences:
- (a) any proprietary or other rights that the Client had in those financial instruments will be replaced by an unsecured contractual claim for delivery of equivalent financial instruments subject to the terms of the relevant security collateral arrangement;

ACM_TOB_Retail

(b) such financial instruments will not be held by ACM in accordance with client asset rules, and, if they had benefited from any client asset protection rights, those protection rights will not apply (for example, the financial instruments will not be segregated from our assets or held subject to a trust);

(c) in the event of our insolvency or default under the relevant agreement the Client's claim against ACM for delivery of equivalent financial instruments will not be secured and will be subject to the terms of the relevant security collateral arrangement and applicable law and, accordingly, the Client may not receive such equivalent financial instruments or recover the full value of the financial instruments (although the Client's exposure may be reduced to the extent that the Client has liabilities to ACM which can be set off or netted against or discharged by reference to ACM's obligation to deliver equivalent financial instruments to the Client)

(d) in the event that a resolution authority exercises its powers under any relevant resolution regime in relation to us any rights the Client may have to take any action against us, such as to terminate our agreement, may be subject to a stay by the relevant resolution authority and:

- i. the Client's claim for delivery of equivalent financial instruments may be reduced (in part or in full) or converted into equity; or
- ii. a transfer of assets or liabilities may result in the Client's claim on us, or our claim on the Client, being transferred to different entities

although the Client may be protected to the extent that the exercise of resolution powers is restricted by the availability of set-off or netting rights;

(e) the Client will not be entitled to exercise any voting, consent or similar rights attached to the financial instruments as a result of ceasing to have a proprietary interest in those financial instruments, and even if we have agreed to exercise voting, consent or similar rights attached to any equivalent financial instruments in accordance with the Client instructions or the relevant security collateral arrangement entitles you to notify us that the equivalent financial instruments to be delivered by us to you should reflect your instructions with respect to the subject matter of such vote, consent or exercise of rights, in the event that we do not hold and are not able to readily obtain equivalent financial instruments, we may not be able to comply (subject to any other solution that may have been agreed between the parties);

(f) in the event that we are not able to readily obtain equivalent financial instruments to deliver to you at the time required: you may be unable to fulfil your settlement obligations under a hedging or other transaction you have entered into in relation to those financial instruments; a counterparty, exchange or other person may exercise a right to buy-in the relevant financial instruments; and you may be unable to exercise rights or take other action in relation to those financial instruments;

(g) subject to any express agreement between ACM and the Client, ACM will have no obligation to inform the Client of any corporate events or actions in relation to those financial instruments;

ACM_TOB_Retail

(h) the Client will not be entitled to receive any dividends, coupon or other payments, interests or rights (including securities or property accruing or offered at any time) payable in relation to those financial instruments, although the express written terms of the relevant collateral arrangement or transaction may provide for you to receive or be credited with a payment by reference to such dividend, coupon or other payment (a “manufactured payment”)); and

(i) our exercise of a right of use in respect of any financial collateral provided to ACM by the Client and the delivery by ACM to the Client of equivalent financial instruments may give rise to tax consequences that differ from the tax consequences that would have otherwise applied in relation to the holding by the Client or by ACM for the Client account of those financial instruments;

(j) where you receive or are credited with a manufactured payment, your tax treatment may differ from your tax treatment in respect of the original dividend, coupon or other payment in relation to those financial instruments.

96. Where ACM provides the Client with clearing services (whether directly as a clearing member or otherwise), we draw your attention to the following additional re-use risks and consequences:

(a) if ACM is declared to be in default by an EU central counterparty (“EU CCP”) the EU CCP will try to transfer (“port”) the Client transactions and assets to another clearing broker or, if this cannot be achieved, the EU CCP will terminate the Client transactions;

(b) in the event that other parties in the clearing structure default (e.g. a central counterparty, a custodian, settlement agent or any clearing broker that we may instruct) the Client may not receive all of his assets back and his rights may differ depending on the law of the country in which the party is incorporated and the specific protections that that party has put in place;

97. In some cases, a central counterparty may benefit from legislation which protects actions it may take under its default rules in relation to a defaulting clearing member (e.g., to port transactions and related assets) from being challenged under relevant insolvency law.

Disclosure of Foreign Nominee Holders of Russian Securities

98. Recent legislative developments in Russia have imposed obligations on non-Russian companies holding Russian securities (e.g. shares in Russian companies and depository receipts (“DR”) based on Russian securities) to disclose to depositaries and to Russian issuers of such securities information regarding the beneficial owners of the securities.

99. As a result of the amendments to the Russian legislation, upon receiving a request by an issuer, the Russian courts, the Federal Financial Markets Service and other Russian authorities, ACM is required to provide the following information regarding the owners of the securities and the persons who exercise rights in respect to the securities which are recorded in the accounts of those foreign nominee holders:

- Details of the beneficial owner (e.g. full name, id number, address, telephone number)
- For legal entities, the registration number and date of registration, registered address, etc.
- The type and number of securities held as well as other information relating to these securities (e.g. series, date and place of issue, information about the issuer and any other details requested as per the Russian legislation, as amended from time to time)

100. Failure to disclose information required will result in declared dividends not to be distributed to the registered owners and such undistributed dividends will be recovered as part of undistributed profits.

Settlement

101. ACM shall be under no obligation to settle contracts or account to you unless and until it has received all necessary documents or assets. Delivery or payment is entirely at your risk.

102. Except as expressly provided in these Terms of Business, ACM shall have no obligation to exercise any subscription, conversion, voting or any other rights which are conferred by any investments held by or on behalf of ACM for you.

103. Unless we agree otherwise, you are responsible for the due performance of every transaction which we enter into or with you. Where permitted to do so by applicable rules, we may effect a net settlement with or for you or on your behalf.

104. Where we have acted as agent for you, it is the other party to the transaction and not us who is responsible for all obligations, including settlement, relating to the transaction and delivery or payment will be at your entire risk.

105. Our obligation to settle any transaction, whether we are acting as principal or agent for you, is conditional upon the receipt by us or our agents on or before the due date for settlement of all necessary documents or funds due to be received.

In those instances where we act as your agent, you may be required to settle directly with a third party or intermediate broker without our involvement in the settlement process. In such circumstances, ACM will have no obligations and accepts no liability in relation to such settlement process.

Material Interests

106. ACM may have interests, relationships or arrangements that are material in relation to any transaction with or for you. Such interests, relationships or arrangements will not necessarily be disclosed to you at the time. ACM has procedures to identify and to prevent or manage conflicts of interest. A summary of our conflicts of interests' policy is available in section "Conflicts of Interests". Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the relationship between ACM and any client nor any other matter will give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties which would oblige ACM to accept responsibilities more extensive than those set out in these Terms or which would, subject to the Rules, prevent ACM from:

- acting as principal or as agent for any connected company in respect of the investments that you are buying or selling or providing services to other persons with interests in or proposing to acquire such investments;
- sponsoring or underwriting the new issue involving the investment that you are buying or selling;
- dealing as agent on your behalf with a connected company or conducting an "agency cross" by matching your order with the order of another party (who may be a connected company);
- having a holding or dealing position (whether a long or short position) in the investment that you are buying or selling.

ACM maintains arrangements which restrict access by its employees to information relating to areas of its business with which, and the affairs of clients with which, they are not directly concerned. Subject to the Rules, neither ACM nor its employees will be required to have regard to, nor have any duty to disclose to you, or utilise for your benefit any information which comes to ACM's notice in the course of carrying on business or as a result of or in connection with services provided to other persons, or which is not known to those employees who are handling your affairs.

107. The Company's Conflicts of Interests Policy will be provided to you upon request.

Confidentiality and Data Protection

108. Information, in any form, given to you by us in respect of financial instruments may not be used or relied upon by you for any purpose other than the Services, and the terms of any engagement letter relating to the Services (including, inter-alia, details of our fees) may not be disclosed to any third party (unless you are required to disclose such information under a legal obligation or you disclose it to another of your advisers in connection with the Services, in either of which cases you will promptly inform us of such disclosure), nor used or relied on by any third party without our prior written consent.

109. Without prejudice to any other provisions related to data disclosure contained in the Terms of Business, (i) where the client is a corporate or (ii) where the client is an individual, you hereby irrevocably authorize us to disclose the client's Confidential Information (which means any information in relation to you, your accounts, or any transaction), under the following circumstances:

109.1 as required by any Applicable Law, where Applicable Law means any applicable national, federal, supranational, state, regional, provincial, local or other statute, law, ordinance, regulation, rule, code, guidance, order, published practice or concession, judgment or decision of a governmental authority (including an applicable regulator), the rules of any relevant exchange, any agreement entered into with or between any governmental authority or governmental authorities and any other laws or regulations (whether of the UK, EU, EEA, third country or transnational) applicable to us in the provision of Services to the client; to the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission or any other governmental authority, court or tribunal;

109.2 to any exchange, clearing house or self-regulated organisation (whether of a governmental nature or otherwise), in any jurisdiction, as and when requested by them;

109.3 to any of Company's affiliates, service providers, brokers, dealers, custodians, agents, bankers, auditors and professional advisers;

109.4 to credit reference agencies or other organisations that help Company and others make credit decisions and reduce the incidence of fraud or in the course of carrying out identity, fraud prevention or credit control checks; or

109.5 to a third party where required for the purpose of novation or for the purpose of transferring or managing risk, liquidity or capital requirements, provided that such third party must be required to hold such information confidential.

110. Except the cases specified above in clause 109 all information which we, and/or our brokers, receive from you concerning your business or affairs and any information or work product generated from such information, which is not in the public domain, or is not available to us on a non-confidential basis, or has not been independently developed by us and which we and/or our brokers are not required to disclose by any applicable regulation or as authorised or required to be disclosed by a court of law or by any competent authority, will be held in confidence by us and/or our brokers, as applicable, unless and until such time as you specifically consent to the disclosure of that Confidential Information. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause will prevent us from disclosing information to the extent required to perform the Services.
111. All information, documents and communications in our possession or control relating to the Services or the subject matter of the Services shall be our sole property, save for original contracts, share certificates and other original documents held on your behalf. We shall be permitted to retain a copy of all information, documents and communications between us or sent or received by us in connection with the Services for regulatory and risk management purposes.
112. Client acknowledges and agrees that the Client's Confidential Information may include personal data of the client (where the Client is an individual), the client's employees, authorized persons or other individuals (where the Client is a legal entity) provided by the Client or a person acting on the Client's behalf to the Company in connection with the Services or the Terms of Business and/or any agreement between you and us (the "Personal Data").
113. Client acknowledges and agrees that ACM may process the Personal Data for the purposes of (i) the provision of the Services and operations of your accounts, (ii) administration and management of the Company's relationship with the client (including business development and IT management), (iii) informing you of our range of services and/or for any new products (marketing), (iv) complying with any requirement of law or regulation or of any competent authority or professional body (where applicable) (relating to inter-alia, fraud prevention, legal, tax, credit control and compliance with any other applicable law or regulation) including but not limited to the provisions of the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law of 2007-2019, as amended, and performing the Appropriateness test which is required under the 'Investment Services and Activities and Regulated Markets Law of 2017', as amended. ACM will be data controllers (i.e. person which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of your personal data). ACM, where required for these purposes, shall disclose the Personal Data to persons in the categories set out in clause 109.

114. Further details of how we process Personal Data including principles of processing, our lawful basis of processing, rights of the data subject, security of personal data, principles and information in respect of transfer of personal data to third countries and international organisations are specified in our Privacy Policy available on our website. You confirm that you have read and acknowledged the content of our Privacy Policy prior to undertaking business with ACM and you have no objections to any matter arising under and/or out of the Privacy Policy. 116. ACM will retain the Personal Data for up to five years after the termination of the business relationship with the Client, unless otherwise required by applicable law.
117. Except in limited cases, where ACM might seek the consent of the client (where the client is an individual) and other relevant individuals outside the scope of these Terms of Business or/and any agreement between you and us, the Company does not rely on individual consent as a lawful basis to process the Personal Data. Pursuant to the provisions of applicable data protection law (Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 April 2016) the Company's lawfulness of processing of Personal Data is based on being (i) necessary for the performance of a contract to which the client is party or in order to take steps at the request of the potential client prior to entering into a contract (ii) necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by ACM as described in clause 113 herein (subject to the relevant individual's privacy and fundamental rights and freedoms overriding such interests); and/or (iii) necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which ACM is subject.
118. Where the client is a legal entity, the client shall ensure that before the client or any person acting on the client's behalf provide the Company with any Personal Data in connection with these Terms of Business or/and any agreement between you and us, the relevant individual has been:
 - 118.1. informed of the disclosure of the Personal Data (or categories of Personal Data) to be disclosed and of the Company's identity and contact details;

- 119.2 given the information set forth in clauses 109 and 113 to 117.
120. The client shall provide the Company with such information as is necessary or desirable to keep the Personal Data up to date and accurate and it shall immediately (or as soon as reasonably expected) notify the Company of non-compliance with applicable data protection law by the Client which may be relevant to processing of the Personal Data by the Company.
121. The Company shall not incur any liability for any disclosure made by the Company in good faith in accordance with this part Confidentiality and Data Protection.

123. The Client shall ensure adequate, relevant and limited use of the personal data to what is necessary in relation to the performance of the agreement.  - (d) were any of you to die, these Terms of Business and relevant agreement will continue and we may treat the survivor or survivors as the only party or parties to these Terms of Business and the relevant agreement as entitled to the assets and/or any bank account, but we may act on the instructions of any Personal Representative (or, as applicable, liquidator) appointed over your estate if we receive proof of their authority;

You may ask us to remove a person (or persons) from a joint account, including by converting it to a sole account. We may require authority from all account holders before doing so. Any person removed from the account will continue to be liable for all obligations and liabilities under these Terms of Business and the relevant agreement relating to the period before they were removed from the account.

Where you own investments individually, these investments may be placed into a joint account. If they are, they will be owned jointly.

In relation to our investment services, we will not act on instructions from any one joint account holder to register shares in a single name, change your account address or close your account. In these circumstances, we require written instructions signed by all joint account holders. If we give you notice to end the relationships with you and the relevant agreement, we will transfer the assets in your account into your joint names. Registration fees will apply for each transfer.

Instructions

129. You hereby appoint and authorise us to execute transactions on your behalf or to arrange for the provision of execution services by any of our brokers, on an execution only basis, in respect of financial instruments including the reception of orders and their transmission to our brokers on your behalf. Any such broker may be outside Cyprus and in such circumstances the legal and regulatory regime applying may be different from that of Cyprus. You separately authorise us to act upon orders received from you and transmit them to our brokers as your agent as though such orders had been given by you directly.

All such instructions given to us may be given orally, in writing or by electronic means (including, without limitation, Bloomberg) as we agree with you from time to time. They must be properly communicated to the person responsible for their reception and transmission in accordance with our normal business practice. You transmit any instruction at your own risk. You authorise us to rely and act upon any instruction received by us (orally, in writing or by electronic means) which we believe in good faith to come from you or to have been given on your behalf without any further enquiry of us. We or our brokers may require you to confirm instructions in writing where deemed necessary and may refuse instructions to arrange any particular transaction.

(a) You shall confirm the name of each person authorised to give us instructions on your behalf in writing at the client acceptance stage. You may vary this list by written notice to us. We shall not take into consideration any such amendment until we have actually received such written notice. We will be entitled to act upon the instructions given orally, in writing or by electronic means of any person authorised by you or anyone who appears to be such an authorised person, including without limitation, by the fact that such person has access to your electronic means of communication and gives instructions on your behalf. You will be responsible for and bound by any actions taken by us on the basis of any instructions which we believe to have originated from your authorised person, including any transaction entered into or any obligation assumed by us on your behalf or any costs or expenses incurred by us, in each case as a result of or in connection with such instructions.

ACM_TOB_Retail

We are entitled to assume that any notices, authorisations, commitments or requests (whether in writing or not and however communicated to us) have been properly authorised by you if they are given or purport to be given by an individual or person who is, or purports to be and is reasonably believed by us to be authorised by you to give such notices, authorisations, commitments or requests.

- (b) ACM shall not be held responsible for delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of any instruction or other information or the execution of orders due to any cause whatsoever beyond the reasonable control of ACM. ACM shall not be liable for any loss, expense, cost or liability (including consequential loss) suffered or incurred by you as a result of instructions being given, or any other communications being made via the internet or other electronic media.
 - (c) If after instructions are received, ACM reasonably believes that it is not in your best interests to act upon such instructions, ACM may defer acting upon those instructions until it is, in ACM's reasonable opinion under the circumstances, practicable to do so. Alternatively, if ACM declines to carry out a transaction it shall, subject to applicable law, promptly notify you but shall have no liability for any expense, cost, loss or damage incurred by you resulting from such deferral or refusal.
 - (d) We will record all conversations in reference to the conditions set out under the sections "Electronic Communications" and "Telephone recording and monitoring communications". These records will be and will remain sole property of the relevant party and may be used as evidence, or otherwise as necessary to comply with Applicable Regulations.
 - (e) Once given, instructions may only be withdrawn or amended with your consent as long as the order has not been executed, except where these Terms provide otherwise.
 - (f) You will promptly give any instructions we may request from you in respect of any proposed transaction for or with you. If you do not do so, we or any broker, in each case acting in its sole discretion, may take any steps at your cost as they consider appropriate for their protection or for your protection as long as the securities in question are fully fungible.
 - (g) Any instructions given to us with a condition described as Good Till Cancel ("GTC") will be deemed authorised for the period of one calendar month after which if a verbal or written reconfirmation of the instruction is not given for the continuation of the instruction, the instruction will be withdrawn.
130. In respect of transactions executed or arranged for you by us, we will send you with due despatch a confirmation note or contract note in respect of each transaction effected for or with you. You may request information from us concerning your order at any time.
131. Confirmation notes and contract notes, shall be conclusive and deemed acknowledged by you as correct (even if we or any of our broker requests but does not receive specific acknowledgement or acceptance from you) unless we or the relevant broker receive from you notice to the contrary within one (1) business day of despatch to you of the confirmation or contract note or we or the relevant broker notify you of an error therein.

Soft Commission Agreements

146. We do not have, and do not intend to enter into, any soft commission agreements.

Security and Rights of Lien and Set-off

147. This clause shall apply subject to any other charge or security documentation between us applying to the relevant assets:
- (a) ACM shall have a lien, right of retention and power of sale and charge (a "security interest") over any and all cash, investments, documents of title, certificates and other assets (the "Security") of yours whether in sole or joint names or otherwise from time to time which are held by or with ACM now or at any time pursuant to these Terms of Business to the extent of and to satisfy any outstanding liability which you may have now or at any time towards us pursuant to these Terms of Business;
 - (b) you agree that you will not withdraw or seek to withdraw any property which is subject to the above security interest or in any way encumber, assign, transfer or deal with such property without our prior consent and until any outstanding liabilities are repaid;

 - (d) ACM may set off any obligation owed by you under these Terms of Business or any transaction entered into pursuant to it against any obligation owed by ACM to you (whether or not in connection with these Terms of Business or any transaction under them), regardless of the currency, booking branch or place of payment of either obligation. If such an obligation is neither unascertained nor liquidated, ACM may in good faith estimate the obligation and set off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant party accounting to the other when the obligation is ascertained or liquidated. If the obligations are in different currencies, ACM may convert the obligations at a market rate of exchange in the usual

This does not affect our right to enforce payment without resort to security;
- (g) if the proceeds of the realization of the security are not enough to repay all outstanding liabilities you will repay the amount of the deficiency immediately to ACM;
- (h) the security interest of ACM is not affected in any way by any time indulgence or relief being given by ACM; or

Where ACM is obliged to enter into agreements that create such security interests, liens or rights of set-off, will disclose this information to you indicating the risks associated with those arrangements. Where security interests, liens or rights of set-off are granted by ACM over client financial instruments or funds, or where ACM has been informed that they are granted, they shall be recorded in client contracts and the ACM's own accounts to make the ownership status of client assets clear, such as in the event of an insolvency.

 - (g) if any security created by any mortgage or charge becomes enforceable against you and the mortgagee or charge takes steps to enforce the security or charge;
 - (h) if any of your indebtedness or of any of your subsidiaries becomes immediately due and payable, or capable of being declared so due and payable, prior to its stated maturity by reason of your default (or of any of your subsidiaries) or you (or any of your subsidiaries) fail to discharge any indebtedness on its due date;
 - (i) if any of the representations or warranties given by you are, or become, untrue;

151. Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in sub-clauses above, ACM shall have the right, and is authorized at its discretion:
- (a) to sell or charge in any way any or all of your assets and property which may from time to time be in the possession or control of ACM;

 - (f) to enter into any foreign exchange transaction, at such rates and times as ACM may determine, in order to meet obligations incurred under a contract;

ACM_TOB_Retail

- (g) to invoice back all or part of any assets standing to the debit or credit of any account (this involves commuting ACM's or your obligation to deliver an asset into an obligation to pay an amount equal to the market value of the asset (determined by ACM in its absolute discretion) on the date invoicing back takes place); and/or
 - (h) to treat any outstanding contracts as cancelled and terminated.
152. If ACM elects to close-out any open contract pursuant to this clause, then without prejudice to amounts which have become due and payable there under, all other open obligations shall be accelerated and immediately due and payable, and each such contract shall be discharged by the calculation of the market value of such contract as estimated or determined by us in good faith.
153. The market values for all accelerated contracts and any amounts due and payable but unpaid in respect of such contract shall be aggregated and netted against each other, so that a single liquidated amount is immediately due and payable by one party to the other, subject to our rights to apply any cash margin or other collateral (including the liquidated value of non-cash collateral) held by us by way of set-off. Interest will be payable on all outstanding sums due to ACM.
154. You authorize ACM to take any or all of the steps described in this clause without notice to you and acknowledge that ACM shall not be responsible for any consequences of it taking any such steps. The rights described in this clause are in addition to any other rights which ACM may have against you. You shall execute such documents and take such other action as ACM may request in order to protect the rights of ACM under these Terms of Business or under any agreement you may have with any of them.
155. If ACM exercises its rights to sell any of your assets under this clause, it will affect such sale, without notice or liability to you, on your behalf and apply the proceeds of sale in or towards discharge of any or all of your obligations to ACM.
156. Without prejudice to ACM's other rights, ACM may, at any time and without notice, combine or consolidate all or any of your accounts with ACM and off-set any and all amounts owed to, or by ACM, in such manner as ACM may determine.

This may include any costs, charges and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and time costs of our relevant personnel, which shall be calculated on the basis of our standard time cost rates) involved in investigating, preparing for or defending the relevant claim and/or in establishing its right to be indemnified whether or not this is connected with pending or threatened litigation in which we or any other Indemnified Person is a party provided that any of the abovementioned claims shall not have arisen from our or their negligence, fraud, or willful default or the breach by us of our duties under the CySEC Law and Directives which are in force for the time being in each case as finally determined by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction from which there is no further appeal;

- iii. if any sum payable by you under the indemnity contained in this Term is required by law to be paid under any deduction or withholding for or on account of tax, you will, (except to the extent that the deduction or withholding gives rise to credit, benefit or saving for the relevant Indemnified Person), pay such additional amount as shall be required to ensure that the net amount received by such an Indemnified Person will equal the full amount which would have been received by it if no deduction or withholding for or on account of tax was made;
- iv. we shall have regard to (but not be bound to comply with) any reasonable request which you may make in relation to any relevant action or claim brought or made against us, subject to your indemnifying and securing us against any and all costs, charges and expenses incurred by it in complying with any such request; and
